MONEY-MONEY-MONEY

Want to know how and have a voice in deciding where your membership money is being spent? Then come to the meeting this Tuesday night (August 12) at 8pm. Some expenditures involving the security patrol and recreation PLUS a projected budget for next year will be discussed and voted on.

PATROL VOLUNTEERS WHERE ARE YOU?

Are you willing to take an active part in helping to keep your personal and private property safe? Show community interest and involvement by volunteering a little of your time. For further information on what's involved, see Hal Labkon at the Tuesday night meeting, 8pm, or call Hal at 681-6853.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP IMPORTANT

Interested in joining the Bloomingdale Homeowner's Association? Bill Charles is the person to see. Bill will be at the Tuesday night meeting (12 August), 8pm, at the sales office.

COURT ABUSES ALREADY NOTED

It's true. Our tennis courts and racketball courts show wear and tear beyond their months of existence. Solutions for their protection will be discussed at the Tuesday night meeting, 8pm. Bob Burdette, the Recreation Director, will have some information that affects ALL homeowners.

BYE-BYE BIKE

Last Saturday morning, a thief walked into someone's open garage and walked-(or rode) away with a 10 speed bicycle. The homeowners were home. For your own protection, keep your garage door closed.

BLOCK PARTY ON THE DRAWING BOARD

A family block party is on the board, and shaping up quite nicely. Joyce Uphoff is in charge of the Halloween Children's Activities, which will begin at 3pm on November 1st. The adult party, beginning immediately following the children's activities, will be directed by Peg Witter. For more information and to provide sorely needed help, see Joyce or Peg at the meeting this Tuesday night, 12 August, 8pm.

" S P E A K U P A M E R I C A ! "

It's time to stand up and be counted at this Tuesday's Bloomingdale Homeowners Association meeting. Come out and voice your opinion on the direction and ultimate goals of your association. The majority of members in attendance will rule on all motions put before the floor, so be present to vote as you see fit. REMEMBER: "This is your association!"

APATHY KILLS

Many things have happened since I volunteered to serve on the Board of Directors of the Bloomingdale Homeowners Association.

I have seen a group of people, with diverse backgrounds and opinions, begin to display signs of organization and discipline.

I am proud to serve with these people, having learned much about the importance each and every voice has.

Apathy will kill all that has been gained. Attend the Homeowners Association meetings, beginning with this Tuesday night, 12 August, 8pm.
