"And the walls came tumbling down..."

The school buses are now picking up the children in the morning on Greenhollow Lane. The children arrive as early as 7:00 a.m. at the bus stop, therefore, the kids have time on their hands until the buses arrive.

Most of the children are well behaved but some spend their time playing in the road and throwing rocks at our walls. The maintenance of all the walls is still up in the air but repairs should not be necessary.

It's our area and our children!

Please help all of your neighbors and assist us in protecting our neighborhood.
